

LOOKING AHEAD SO YOU CAN MARK YOUR CALENDARS

December: Holiday Party at Phoenix Art Museum, Monday, December 5, 6 to 9 pm-----both email and regular mail invitation is on its way to you.

January: ITS THAT TIME OF YEAR TO THINK ABOUT YOUR LIFE AND LEGACY. JOIN US FOR "Living and Leaving a Legacy: How Mentoring Can Make A Difference", January 11, 2012 luncheon at the Phoenix Country Club at 11:30 am. Lois Zachary will facilitate the session with a panel of Charter members Sheila Grinnell, Chevy Humphrey and Dana Campbell Saylor, who will share their personal stories and strategies for ensuring the next generation of women leaders. Focused questions will offer opportunity for table discussion about how you hope to share your legacy and improve quality of life for the future leaders of our community.

February: Join us as Charter 100 goes uptown with high style! You are invited to a special reception featuring the Best of Arizona wines & the finest of downtown living. Enjoy a special tasting of awarding-winning Arizona wines + an insider tour of Caralee Allsworth's extraordinary new home and her museum-quality art collection. It's a triple header event just for Charter 100 members. Wednesday, February 15, 2012, 5:30-7:30 pm at 1 Lexington Place, Unit 1008, Phoenix 85012 (easy parking on ground floor behind building). Caralee's home is on light rail on Central near Osborn. You'll be high above the city as the city lights come on.....We thank her profusely for graciously opening her home and sharing her art collection with us. Wine and appetizers.

March: SMALL IS BEAUTIFUL AND PROFITABLE. AND IT HELPS GROW OUR STATE! What's it like to run a business with more than 10 employees in Arizona in 2012? Thriving private businesses affect our local economy in difficult economic times. What can the community do to attract and retain businesses like these? Successful Charter 100 business owners will talk about the challenges as well as opportunities. Donna Davis, CEO of AZ Small Business Association, will moderate a panel that includes Gayle Shanks, co-founder and co-owner of Changing Hands Bookstore, Eileen Rogers, owner of Allegra Marketing and Print, Nora Hannah, owner Landiscor and director of Experience Matters. We found we have many small business owners in our organization and perhaps we can feature another three next year! Luncheon Wednesday March 14, place TBD

April: CHARTER 100 TAKES FLIGHT! Bird watching is one of the fastest growing hobbies in the world and AZ is in the superhighway of flight for the most gorgeous birds. Join our flock of Charter 100 gorgeous women on April 25 at the Audubon Center. Sam Campana (Founding Director of Audubon Arizona) will host us at the fabulous Rio Salado Center, 3131 South Central, for wine and appetizers. We will be trained to use Audubon's binoculars by Emily Morris, a brilliant young biologist from Vassar who fell in love with Arizona birds. We will walk down to the river--yes Rio Salado is a running river there, attracting frogs and beautiful birds. 5:30-7:30 pm for wine and appetizers.

May 9: New member program.
